

WASHINGTON PRESS ASSOCIATION

Contest Entry Fees & Membership form:

(Print Form Version)

You do not have to be a member of the Washington Press Association to enter this competition, although, of course, we hope you'll join. And you'll save money if you enter the contest. It is important to note that the Washington Press Association is affiliated with the National Federation of Press Women (NFPW). Please visit www.NFPW.org for the many advantages of joining this organization. If you choose to become a member of NFPW and win a first place in the WPA contest, your entry will automatically (and at no cost to you!) be forwarded to the NFPW national contest as well.

Your Name: _____

Address: _____

City: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____

Phone: () _____

E-mail: _____

Membership fee:

Note

Membership fees cover membership for the calendar year in which they are submitted, regardless of when the fees are paid. Thus, all entrants in the 2010 contest would need to pay fees for 2011 to be eligible.

WPA Membership fee:

_____ $20 (Working Communicator) _____ $10 (student)

Optional NFPW Membership fee:

_____ $73 (Working Communicator) _____ $20 (student or senior)

Contest fee:

WPA members:

_____ $10 first entry (Working Communicator or Student) _____ $5 each for subsequent entries

Non-members:

_____ $30 first entry _____ $15 each for subsequent entries

Total number of entries submitted: _____ Total fees enclosed: $ _____

Print this form and mail it with your check to:

Washington Press Association
2024 Falcon Ct.
Bellingham, WA 98229

If you have any questions contact: WPA2010contest@washingtonpressassociation.com